EXPLANATORY NOTES

Volume 82 of American Book Prices Current has been prepared by a team of editors highly experienced in the field of rare books and manuscripts. As its users know, ABPC is not just a transcribed record of titles and prices, copied unquestioningly from the season's auction catalogues. It is, on the contrary, the only work in English in which every listing of printed material has been checked as to title, format, date of publication, edition, and limitations. Bindings are described, with condition where relevant, and wherever possible maps and plates in books are verified. Moreover, sales of autographs and manuscripts are reported. Because of this, ABPC is an essential tool for buying, selling, and evaluating books, serials, autographs, manuscripts, broadsides, and maps, based on actual figures realized at auction. In the words of a reviewer in The Times Literary Supplement, it is "an accurate, indispensable tool for the antiquarian bookseller and collector." And, in addition to meeting the need for a dependable guide in determining the value of old and out-of-print books, ABPC serves as a reference work and as an aid to scholars in locating printed works and manuscripts of all centuries, from the earliest years to the present.

Because of the tremendously increased activity in recent years in the book and auction market and the resulting growth in the size of ABPC, we have been forced to choose between expanding to two volumes with a corresponding increase in cost to the user and reduced convenience in handling, or placing limits on certain categories not of prime interest to most users of ABPC. In brief, listings of books in non-Western languages realizing less than $100 or its equivalent have been judiciously reduced, and such peripheral works as printings of musical scores, collections of plates, panoramas, etc., have been excluded. In keeping with previous editorial policy, auction lots consisting of groupings of miscellaneous volumes are not listed, for the prices realized by such lots can give no accurate indication of the value of individual items. Similarly, listings of badly broken runs of periodicals or seriously incomplete sets of printed books do not appear. A feature is the presentation of autograph and manuscript listings in a single section, it being our belief that the convenience of the user is better served with but a single alphabet to work through than with an arbitrary division by chronological order. The economies in space realized by the foregoing have enabled us, on the other hand, to expand considerably the number of cross-references given, with a resultant increase in the convenience and usability of the book as a work of reference and guide to current prices.

American Book Prices Current is composed of two parts. Part I, Books, includes Broadsides, single-sheet printings, Maps & Charts, and uncorrected proof copy. Part II, Autographs & Manuscripts, includes original illustrations for printed books, documents, letters, typescripts, corrected proofs, signed photographs, and signatures, as well as manuscripts.

Entries are listed alphabetically by author whenever possible, by title when the author's name is not readily available, or by Private Press and Club, printer, or pub- lisher headings if such are the associations which attract the collector. In general, illustrated books are listed under the author of the text. Subject headings such as England, Maps & Charts, Hebrew Books, Collections of Voyages, and Fore-Edge Paintings, or those for individual U.S. states or cities have also been used. Individual works are in turn listed alphabetically under each heading and include: title; place & date of publication; edition designation; number of volumes, when more than one; size, binding, and condition of binding; descriptive material, limitation notes, and the sale record — auction house (in code), date or number of sale, lot number, price, and purchaser (when such information has been provided).

There are cross-references to Club or Press books, to books bound together, and to books by more than one author.

Listings of 20th-century books frequently lack format and binding. In such instances it may be assumed that these books are octavo or duodecimo and bound in cloth. It has been the practice not to include such information for books published after 1900.

Volume 82 lists only those books and manuscripts which sold for at least $20 or its equivalent in another currency. Throughout the season the Canadian Dollar was roughly equal to the American Dollar, while the Australian Dollar remained steady at about $1.25. The British Pound Sterling ranged between $1.71 and $2.10. The Dutch Florin ranged between 2.63 and 2.75 to the American Dollar, the French Franc between 4.38 and 4.94 to the American Dollar, and the Swiss Franc between 2.44 and 2.71 to the American Dollar. The Italian Lira varied between 669 and 874 to the American Dollar. The following buyers' surcharges should also be noted: In Holland 16% and 10 cents per item; in France 16% up to F6,000, 11.5% up to F20,000, 10% above F20,000; in England 10% at Sotheby's Christie's and Bonham's, but no surcharge at Phillips; in Switzerland 14% with a rebate of 6% to registered wholesalers under Swiss Sales Tax Law and to buyers residing outside Switzerland who present a stamped Swiss Export Declaration. Buyers' names are given when and as listed in price lists.

Our most particular thanks are due Jane Mallison, Susan Coleman, Gerard Mayers, and Eugenia Schwarz.

THE AUCTION SEASON

Volume 82 of American Book Prices Current reports the auction season from September 1975 to August 1976. Included are sales at the leading houses in London, New York, Sydney, Paris, Rome, Utrecht, Zurich, Montreal, Baltimore, Chicago, Philadelphia, San Francisco, and Los Angeles, not to mention Monte Carlo. This volume contains over 30,000 entries from 200 sales.

Three new symbols—b, Ck and ha—make their appearance in our sales records with the inclusion of Bonham's and Christie's South Kensington in London and of Harris Auction Galleries in Baltimore.

For some, it was the year of the Craig, Plesch, Philipps (Wing books), Bluestein, Howard, Diaghilev-Lifar, Beckford-Rosebery, Carter, Munby and "Swann 1,000" sales. But for others, it was the year that the buyer's surcharge came to London (for full information on buyers' surcharges in various European countries, see Explanatory Notes). The sounds of protest were heard as the surcharge was instituted in London, but effective resistance was sadly lacking, and the surcharge prevailed easily at Christie's, Sotheby's and Bonham's. By refusing to go along with the policy, Philipps increased their business by more than one-third. Everybody won; that is, everybody who wasn't a collector, a library, or a dealer buying for stock. Such is the nature of the war against inflation.

Admittedly, the temptation to yield to the surcharge policy and continue to buy must have been great at times, for the unique offerings ranged from the truly magnificent Flemish book of hours with 84 miniatures from the atelier of Gerard Horenbout and Simon Bening (£370,000) to books from the libraries of those two sorely missed gentlemen, John Carter and A. N. L. Munby. Other outstanding Sotheby offerings included the last substantial portion of William Beckford's library to appear on the market, 571 lots from the 5th Earl of Rosebery's collection at Barnbougle Castle; and the sale of a collection of 150 18th-century illustrated books and volumes of prints on 10 November—this was one of our favorite sales of the season because the good taste of the collector was matched by the scholarship of the catalogue compiler, and the result is a catalogue to learn from and to keep. As usual (but not for much longer) Sir Thomas Philipps was well represented. This year's printed offerings included "Wing" books and printed ephemera, while Medieval Manuscripts: New Series: Tenth Part featured the only recorded German illustrated manuscript bestiary (£60,000) and the fine Freudenberg Breviary (£36,000).

Manuscript offerings in general reflected the increasing importance of the Middle East in economic terms. More Persian manuscripts than books of hours were sold in London this year. One might well say that books of hours constitute the single most underpriced category of art today, a situation that surely must change before long.

The trend toward holding sales in the best marketing location continued to be strong. An obvious example was the choice of Monte Carlo for the sale of the

THE AUCTION SEASON

Diaghilev-Lifar collection. Zurich was the site of Sotheby's sale of 38 important Hebrew and Samaritan manuscripts from the collection of David Solomon Sassoon. These included the Damascus Keter Torah (SF1,100,000), which quite possibly is the oldest extant text containing a substantial portion of the Bible in Hebrew; and the only autograph manuscript of Moses Maimonides known—the 2d and 3d orders of the Mishnah with commentary in Judaeo-Arabic, and with his revisions (SF1,200,000). According to the catalogue, the 2 Maimonides volumes “were found in Damascus at the beginning of this century by Rabbi Jacob Moses Toledano, who purchased them from ‘an uncultured man who did not keep them carefully and left them in a damp place,’ and they were acquired by David S. Sassoon in 1908.” Both of these manuscripts were purchased by the Hebrew University.

Those who remained in their seats in the sales room set up in the Hotel Baur au Lac on the morning of November 5, 1975, were treated to a second sale, this one of Continental and Russian autograph letters, literary manuscripts and historical documents. It boasted important Heine material and 2 autograph leaves from Karl Marx's notebooks. The latter sold for a very capitalistic SF17,000.

Christie's were even farther afield—to the Masonic Hall in Launceston, Tasmania—for one of the most important and best catalogued sales of the season, that of the Dr. Clifford Craig Collection of books, manuscripts, prints, drawings and paintings relating to the discovery and history of Van Diemen's Land and Tasmania. The 1636 lots which comprised this sale are a tribute to Dr. Craig's painstaking and comprehensive collecting activities. The Christie's cataloguer made good use of Sir J. A. Ferguson's superb Bibliography of Australia, 1941–69, which is certainly just, as Ferguson made great use of the Craig copies in compiling his bibliography. The sale catalogues are models of their kind, to be used by both scholars and the trade for years to come, for Dr. Craig had a number of books which were unrecorded, and the catalogues are beautifully organized. It is heartening to see exceptional sales receiving exceptionally good cataloguing.

The auction market for books and manuscripts, which used to be dominated almost completely by London, has become a truly international market, with dealers traveling with increasing regularity to important foreign sales and with America becoming ever more important as a marketplace. The season under review began in America with “Swann 1,000,” which saw that auction house secure in its position as the principal auction source in America for book dealers, libraries and collectors. Thematic sales at Swann this season included such diverse subjects as numismatic literature, photographica, medicine, bibliography, and children's books. Swann is no local operation these days—its consignors and buyers come from all over the world—and it will not be long before libraries and dealers here and abroad realize what they are missing if they fail to follow the sales of such auction houses outside New York as Freeman in Philadelphia, Harris in Baltimore, and California Book in San Francisco.

The most important step toward establishing an American hegemony in the book and manuscript market was the reorganization of the Book Department at New York's Sotheby Parke Bernet. The central powers at Parke Bernet, after years of seeming indecision, finally decided to give sustaining support to the creation of a book department to rank with the best in London. Anthony Fair came from England to oversee the English and European books and manuscripts, and Tom Clarke took command of Americana. Under this double aegis the Book Department produced a memorable season of book and manuscript sales, with rarities and fine copies abounding: the superb T. J. Hogg copy of Keats's Poems, 1817 ($15,000); the rare Bayard and Lodowick A Journal of the late Actions of the French at Canada, 1693 ($17,000); the Book of Daniel from the Trier copy of the Gutenberg Bible ($45,000) and a lovely copy of the 1859 Rubaiyat ($10,500); and a single lot of 118 autograph letters (with related material) from George Washington to William Pearce, the manager of his Mount Vernon estates ($250,000). Above all, the dynamism and skill of the P-B Book Department generated enthusiasm among potential consignors and buyers alike, thus creating the likelihood of even better seasons to come. The auction market in America has never been healthier, and book-interested people the world over are coming here to enjoy the climate.
